ORDER No. S.R. 2604-95—L.W. 52-47-6, DATED BANGALORE, THE 7TH DECEMBER 1948.

Labour Department was constituted in the year 1941 for the purpose of administering the Laws relating to Labour and a skeleton staff was sanctioned and continued from time to time. In 1945 the laws relating to Labour were permanently placed on the Statute Book and proposals sanctioned for making the Department permanent and pensionable. For the first few years of its working the Department was directed by the Director of Industries and Commerce as Ex-Officio Commissioner of Labour but it is now in charge of a wholetime Commissioner. The additional appointment of a Headquarter Assistant to the Commissioner as well as a revision of the strength and scales of pay of the staff was sanctioned in 1945. Even then the scope of the expanding activities of the Department could not be gauged due to war conditions and it was only a skeleton staff with the old prevailing scales that were sanctioned in 1945. With the conclusion of the War the policy envisaged by the I.L.O. for tackling post-war labour problem and the programmes pursued by the Government of India underwent substantial changes and it became necessary for Indian Provinces and States also to
